Job Shadowing

Any adult interested in observing employees at an Oriana House facility for not more than one day (eight hours) should contact the HR Department via the RecruitmentAkron@orianahouse.org email address. Let us know you are interested in job shadowing and provide a phone number at which we can contact you. An approved observer must complete an Observation Release and Waiver form. This form must also be completed by student nurses who will observe our nursing staff.

Volunteers

Oriana House defines an agency volunteer as an individual who provides an on-going service who is not receiving any type of school credit and/or is not getting paid by another party (current employer, from grant funds, etc.) for providing the service. Potential volunteers must commit to volunteering a minimum of three months or 150 hours over a span of time in order to be eligible to volunteer. Potential volunteers should be prepared to discuss the type of service they are able to provide, the population they prefer to work with (males and/or females), their availability to volunteer (days/evenings/weekends), and their preferred city/location (Akron/Cleveland/Sandusky/Tiffin/Marietta).

Potential volunteers should contact:

Brianna Wise, 330-535-8116 extension 2018, BriannaNWise@orianahouse.org or

McKenzie Astey, 330-535-8116 extension 2078, McKenzieMAstey@orianahouse.org
