Chemical dependency treatment services are provided by Oriana House, Inc., for the County of Summit Alcohol, Drug Addiction & Mental Health Services (ADM) Board.

In 1995, the Summit County Alcohol, Drug Addiction, and Mental Health Services (ADM) Board opened the ADM Crisis Center and chose Oriana House to operate the chemical dependency treatment programs.

More than 11,000 people use the chemical dependency treatment services provided at the ADM Crisis Center each year. Clients may come to the Crisis Center on their own, or with the help of a loved one. Clients may also be referred by employers, physicians, social service agencies, law enforcement officers, or other criminal justice professionals.

The ADM Crisis Center provides a point of entry for Summit County residents to access comprehensive alcohol and chemical dependency treatment services. Psychiatric emergency services are provided on the top level of the Crisis Center by Portage Path Behavioral Health. Having assessment and treatment resources available to those in need is the first step in creating stronger, safer communities in Summit County.

Alcohol and chemical dependency treatment services are provided at the ADM Crisis Center located at 15 Frederick Avenue in Akron.

The Summit County ADM Crisis Center provides a cost effective and humane point of entry to comprehensive alcohol and drug treatment services for chemically dependent residents of Summit County.

Central Assessment

Central Assessment provides chemical dependency evaluations with treatment recommendations and referrals for adult Summit County residents seeking alcohol and chemical dependency treatment services. Clients can be self-referred or referred by family, friends, community agencies, police, courts, or probation or parole officers.

Individuals in need of alcohol and chemical dependency treatment services can call 330-996-7730 to make an appointment for an assessment. Walk-ins are also accepted Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. - 1 p.m. Assessments last approximately 90 minutes. Following the assessment, clients are referred to residential or nonresidential treatment programs depending on their level of need.

Cost is based on a sliding fee scale and some insurance is accepted.

Detoxification

The Detoxification Unit provides 24-hour detoxification services to adult, Summit County residents who are intoxicated or experiencing withdrawal symptoms. Appropriate medical support is provided by a physician along with 24-hour nursing care. Medications are used to treat alcoholism, heroin, cocaine, and benzodiazepine withdrawal.

Clients usually remain in the Detoxification Unit for three to five days. All clients receive a chemical dependency assessment and are referred to community agencies for continued treatment following discharge.

Clients may be self-referred to the Detoxification Unit, or referred by family, friends, community agencies, police, courts, or probation or parole officers. Cost is based on a sliding fee scale and some insurance is accepted.

Support Groups

Peer support groups meet regularly at the ADM Crisis Center to help keep people motivated and on-track while on a waiting list for residential treatment. Call for meeting times and other information.

Drop-In Center

The Drop-In Center is for adult, Summit County residents who require a short stay in a safe environment so they may sufficiently recuperate from the immediate effects of alcohol and/or drugs. Clients may be self-referred or brought to the Drop-In Center by police. Clients remain in the Drop-In Center for six to ten hours and are monitored for withdrawal symptoms. Assessments and referral services to community treatment agencies are offered.

There is no cost to the client for the Drop-In Center.

Summit Link

The Summit Link program is for clients who admittedly have a drug or alcohol problem and have a current, misdemeanor, drug or alcohol related arrest. Clients are assessed, referred to residential or nonresidential treatment programs, and monitored for compliance and coordination of treatment services.

Clients are not charged any fees for the Summit Link program.
