ASSESSMENT

Oriana House, Inc., is required to abide by the PREA Standards for Community Confinement Agencies that were enacted in June 2012. Oriana House has an existing zero-tolerance policy and procedures.

- There was one reported incidence of sexual abuse during 2016 calendar year.
- The agency will continue to ensure that all new employees are trained on PREA standards. All current employees receive PREA follow-up training on a regular basis in their facility staff meetings.
- Executive staff will insure that policies and procedures are regularly reviewed and updated. In addition, executive staff will ensure that all incidents involving PREA standards will be reviewed by a multi-disciplinary committee. Recommendations will be reviewed for feasibility and applied to minimize risk for clients.
- Upon admission, clients are provided with a handbook informing them of their rights and options related to sexual assault, sexual abuse, sexual harassment, and/or retaliation.
- As a result of such low reported numbers of sexual abuse, it is difficult to identify any meaningful areas to improve; however, it can be assumed that the preventative measures that Oriana House, Inc. has in place are effective.
